

THIRD TEXT

CRITICAL PERSPECTIVES ON CONTEMPORARY ART AND CULTURE

Announcing our forthcoming special issue, marking the 70th year anniversary of South Asian Independence and Partition, and the 30th year anniversary of Third Text.

To Draw the Line: Partitions, Dissonance, Art – A Case for South Asia

Numbers 145–148, volume 30, Issue 2/3, March/May 2017

Guest Edited by Alice Correla and Natasha Eaton

Rajni Jain Partition as Parity

Sabot Mathur Partition and the Visual Arts: Reflections of Mohan

Sumathi Ramaswamy The Visuals of the Nation

Sanjayita Sundarajan Shakti Lines: Zainul Abedin and the Politics of the Bangal Famine of 1943

Robecca M Brown To Pick Up a Bruar: A Double-Take, Gieve Patel, and Indian Art of the 1950s

Gieve Patel To Pick up a Bruar

Claire Winfield India on Display: Nationalism, Transnationalism and Collaboration, 1964–1988

Alice Correla Diasporic Returns: Reading Partition in Contemporary Art

Karin Zitserwitz Infrastructures of Form: Cross-Border Networks and the Materialities of

'South Asia' in Contemporary Art

Sonal Khattar Everyday Partitions: 'My East is Your West' (2015) and 'This Night-Eaten Dawn' (2016)

Reminder Kaur Skipping Memories on Partition and the Metacognitive Field in Subcontinental Britain

Arindam Datta Do the Arts Speak Truths? Censorship and Counter-Censorship in the Liberal Realm

Atreyee Gupta Dwelling in Abstraction: Post-Partition Sojourns and Post-War Art

Devika Singh Indian Art and the Bangladesh War: Somnath Hore, K G Subramanyan and

Shaperi Khattar in a Tree of Uprockal and Glass

Saima Siddique Rustic Returns: Vernacular Cinema and Partition Temporality in Lahore

<http://www.thirdtext.org>

article downloads and subscriptions:

<http://www.tandfonline.com/pricing/journals/TTX>

subscribe to Third Text table of contents alerting service:

<http://www.informaworld.com/alerting>

subscribe to eUpdates and newsletters:

<http://www.tandf.co.uk/journals/updates.asp>

Sales of single issues and Third Text Publications titles:

<http://www.cornellbooks.com/>